Sir,

The honorable the governor in Council has had under consideration the claims of Meer Mahamed, only legitimate son of Meer Alli Rezza to a pension and is satisfied that they ought not to be set aside on account of the provision — which at the fall of Seringapatam was made for Kummur-ul-din, his father's natural son. The Governor in Council has accordingly resolved that he shall receive a monthly pension of Pagodas 100 from the Canara Funds from the 1st June 1824 and pagodas 150 — from the Ragah's Funds from the 1st January 1823.

To.

The Dewan in Council
Mysore Government.

The humble petition of Gulam Mahomood son of Gulam Mahamud late Nazim residing in Seringapatam Most respectfully sweth:-

That his father and grandfather had the appointment of Nazim of Gumbaz in the Seeringapatam Taluq until his fathers old age when on his application to appoint a successor for him as he was too old to do the work, the Mysore Deputy Commissioner appointed a stranger overlooking the claims of your humble petitioner for the said appointment. That your humble petitioner more than once urged his claims for the said appointment by means of petitions. The Deputy Commissioner in 1891 was pleased to order that the appointment will be given to your petitioner on it becoming vacant.

That the said incumbent, who

W.o.

was appointed in the place of your humble petitioner's father having died your humble petitioner petitioned the Mysore Superintendant to confer on him the appointment of his father. The Secretary to the Government of Mysore Mysore Department in his reply No. 5242/48-18 informed him that his petition had been sent to the Mysore Deputy Commissioner for report. That while your petitioner was waiting upon the Dy Commissioner and the Mysore Secretary for the consideration of his claims for the post a new man was again appointed. That on his again petitioning the Mysore Secretary he was favoured with an endorsement No 271 dated the 4th instant that on the recommendation of the Dy Commissioner the new man was appointed on probation for six months.

Your humble petitioner is specially trained and quite qualified for the post has been repeatedly brought to the notice of the authorities and his claims were so far recognised that he was ordered to wait till the post become vacant. There was no need or necessity to appoint a Stranger on on probation while a qualified candidate is a volunteer for the post. The appointment which is given to the new man is not the one held by your petitioner's father or grandfather as the salary for the new man is fixed only at Rs 32/ a month while the salary of your humble petitioner's father was Rs 50/- a month. The new man appears to have been appointed a naib or deputy to the Vazir which appointment does not seem to have yet been filled up.—

Your petitioner, most respectfully says that on the perusal of his previous applications and address and on giving your humble petitioner an opportunity to submit his case more fully in person you may be pleased to confer on him the appointment held by his father and grandfather.—

That as ever the new appointment made by the Mujtaq Secretary is temporary only for 6 months, your humble petitioner prays that the said appointment at be as it may be conferred on him.—

For which act
your humble petitioner shall ever pray for your long life and prosperity
I beg to remain

Servant

ABSTRACT

The petitioner states as follows: —

Petitioner's grandfather was the Chief Judge of the Adalat Court. He was granted a State hereditary pension of 600 Pagodas. The pension was continued up to the death of the petitioner's father. The petitioner has been submitting petitions claiming the above pension.

As the petitioners ancestors held the duties of the Nazeem of the Seringapatam Gumbaz without receiving any pay, the petitioner's elder brother who appointed to that post on a monthly salary of Rs 38/. He died in January last. Then the petitioner applied for the post. But a stranger has been temporarily appointed to that post for six months.

The petitioner personally represented his case to the Inspector who promised him that he would be appointed after the lapse of six months.

The petitioner is now an accountant in the Mysore Dist Dy Comr's office. He gets a monthly salary of Rs 25, which is barely insufficient for maintaining his large family. The period of the above six months will be over by 8-8-01.

He prays that he may be appointed Nazeem of the Gumbaz
